The Time to Get Your Premises in Sanitary Condition is Here. Get a Sack of

Hydrated Lime

And it Will Be An Easy Task.

READ MR. JOHN OWING'S LETTER BELOW.

Pearsall, Tex., June 30, 1908—Dittlinger Lime Co., New Braunfels, Texas—Gentlemen—I take pleasure in replying to your inquiry regarding the merits of your Snow Drift Hydrated Lime for the killing of bugs, worms and lice that infest garden truck. The method I used was to dust the Hydrated Lime on lightly, and in less than no time the plants were free from insects. Have also used the lime for branding cattle. First I made a thin solution of the Hydrated Lime and water, stirring well, and after the iron brand was put on, washed the spot good with the solution, using a hand brush, or putting a cloth to the end of a stick, the brand will peel off nicely and the worms will not bother the cattle. JOHN OWING.

We handle the Hydrated Lime put up in 40 pound sacks at 10c per sack. Hydrated Lime is soaked with water, has full strength and can not air slake. And for whitewashing your fruit trees and small buildings around the place is unexcelled.

Menger School.

Hello, dear editor and readers!
Well, here I am coming for the first time to send in a few items of our burg.

The rain which we had the past week is very beneficial to the farmer and the truck growers.

Cotton planting is the order of the day now.

The examination at our school was very well attended. They had a few nice spelling matches and a good many nice speeches were made by the children.
Those who attended with their families were Messrs. Fred.
Remmers, John Wagner, Chas.
Wendt, John Mueller, Anton De-
harde, Joe Erms, Ed. Busch, Albert Deharde, Fritz Duschmidt, Hynell Deharde, Mrs. Dora Zimmermann and some of our young folks. A party was given at night by Prof. Otto Fissler.

Those who attended the party were Misses Annie, Ida and Emma Deharde, Sophie Harbers; Adella Wendt, Alma Zimmermann, Emma Remmers and Johanna Ahrens, Messrs. Otto Fissler, Anton Deharde, Emil and Anton Harbers, Emil Zimmermann, Albert and Otto Wendt, Willie and Henry Remmers, Robert and Reinhard Dreyer, H.
Ahrens, Jr., and John Hauschildt as musician. Say, Fan of Three Heads, you sure missed a grand old time. All reported to have had a good time.

Mrs. Elise Shumacher was visiting her sister, Mrs. John Mueller, the past week.

Mr. Emil and Miss Alma Zimmermann were shopping at Shiner Saturday, also were Mr. Hy.
Ahrens, Sr., and son, Henry.

Those that attended church at Shiner Sunday from our community were the Misses Clara, Adella and Alma Wendt, Sophie Harber, Annie and Emma De-harde, Emma and Adella Remmers, Martha Hoerig, Sophie Maeker, Messrs. Otto Fissler,
Otto Dreyer, Emil and Anton Harbers, Anton Deharde, Albert
and Otto Wendt, Otto Hoerig, Willie Maeker and Willie and Henry Remmers.

Mr. Anton Deharde will leave for La Grange on a visit to friends and relatives.

The health of our burg is good.
If the dear readers will appreciate my letter, I will write again.

As my letter is getting quite long, I will ring off for this time.
HONEY SUCKLE.

Gray, Shiner.

Morris School News.

I must try and send a few lines to The Gazette.

Most of the crops in this vicinity look O. K. The nice rain we had was a great benefit to them.

Miss Annie Brosh returned home Friday after staying a few months in San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Erdle and son, Louis, were busy shopping in Yoakum Friday.

Misses Rosa and Clara Brosch of our vicinity were visiting relatives and friends in Moulton, Praha and Shiner last week.
They reported a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Rindorf and little daughter, Emma, and Misses Bertha and Emma Husner were visiting at Mr. Brosch's last Sunday.

Mr. Frank Maresh and family were visiting at Mr. Jos. Erdle's
last Sunday.

Say, "50," what kind of a time did you have Sunday? Sorry I wasn't home.

Mr. Chas. Drabek was seen on the Yoakum streets today.

Messrs. Hudgeon and William Prauser called on Mr. Joseph Brosch on some business today.

I guess I had better quit now, as I am tired and sleepy, after all the pleasure. SUNSHINE.

Michna School News.

Well, as I have a few minutes time, I will write to the dear old Gazette.

That rain that fell here last Wednesday was very good for the crops and gardens.

Some from here went fishing in the river but I hope they did come back with an empty basket.

John Hartl, Jr., Frank and Albert Migl went to Flatonia last Tuesday. John and Frank returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jaks was visiting at the home of Anton Jaks Sunday.

John Hartl and Frank Migl made a flying trip to Hochheim Sunday.

Miss Louise Barosh and brother were visiting at the home of Jim Barosh Sunday.

Well, I will close for this time.
